

Press Release

Interturbine Aviation Logistics GmbH is an official AeroShell distributor

Kaltenkirchen, September 2010

Interturbine Aviation Logistics GmbH, a global supplier of a wide range of products for the aerospace and high-tech industry, is now the official distribution partner of the Shell Oil Germany GmbH.

The Shell Oil Germany GmbH has transferred its Shell Aviation Lubricants business in Germany to Interturbine. Through this agreement, the many years of successful cooperation between Shell and Interturbine will be further expanded and strengthened.

Shell and Interturbine, through this cooperation, want to establish an even better relationship with their customers and increase market coverage for AeroShell products in Germany.

Interturbine supplies maintenance materials to airlines and aircraft maintenance companies worldwide on behalf of aircraft manufacturers Airbus, ATR, Dornier, Embraer, Eurocopter and Pilatus. This amounts to more than 500,000 products from over 2,700 manufacturers. Headquartered near Hamburg, Germany, Interturbine has additional distribution centers and offices in France, UK, Czech Republic, Hungary, Russia, USA, Canada, Brazil, United Arab Emirates, P.R. China, Japan, Singapore, India, Australia and South Africa. This ensures that all customers can be served and supplied by Interturbine staff in their language and time zone.

„We guarantee that there is high availability of AeroShell lubricants in stock. Therefore, we are able to send the AeroShell products with minimal lead times to our customers,“ said Burckhard Schneider, President and CEO of Interturbine Group of Companies. „In the aviation industry the speed & quality of service is important. „ „Shell is pleased to appoint Interturbine as its distributor for AeroShell lubricants. Interturbine shares our focus on delivering excellent customer service, quality products and competitive prices. Together, we are pleased to be able to extend our reach to even more customers” said Stefan Herrmann Aviation Major Account Manager from Shell.
